BOARD OF PARDONS REPUSES TO COMMUTE THE SENTENCE.

He Will Be Hanged on August 7th—
Emstrup's Petition Denied—Noel Jarmuth Pardoned—Opinion From the Attorney-General on the Question of Fees—Minor Matters.

The board of pardons convened yesterday in the supreme court room, Six cases were on file for bearing, among them being the application of Charles Thiede for commutation to life imprisonment. The hearings were not finished until 5 o'clock, and the following is a brief review of the cases, with the result in each:

CHARLES THIEDE.

Charles Thiede, under sentence of death for the killing of his wife at Murray in the spring of 1894, applied for commutation to life imprisonment. A strong plea for the granting of the petition was made by Judge Cherry, Thiede's attorney, while Assistant County Attorney New spoke against it.

The board's rules limit the arguments of the petition was made by Judge Cherry, Thiede's attorney, while Assistant County Attorney New spoke against it.

JOHN DASTRUP.

John Dastrup, applied for a pardon from serving the balance of a one-year sentence for attempted rape. He was sentenced May 1, 1896, at Richfield. In his petition he alleged youth and the fact that the assuit was "of the slightest nature." The board decided not interfere.

COLE B. NOEL.

Cole Burton Noel, whose application or a pardon was considered and retailer in the year, brought his polication up for a rehearing. He was sentenced to interfere as earlier in the year, brought his polication up for a rehearing. He was sentenced in 1895 for two years related by the clerks of the state treasury.
